[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., May 6.—Mr. Elmer Shaffer, of the firm of Argo & Shaffer, lawyers, had a narrow escape from a horrible death under a street car on upper Fayetteville Street this morning. He came out from his residence and hailed a car which was close at hand. The car was moving so rapidly that it dashed by, and he attempted to spring on to the platform, when his foot slipped and he fell, barely swinging from under the wheels. His left leg was badly mashed, and a gash about ten inches long was cut. He was badly bruised about the body, and was carried to the Rex Hospital. Mr. Shaffer is the junior member of one of the most prominent law firms in Raleigh.

HOSPITAL PATIENT FALLS FIFTY FEET

John L. Sherwood, a Prominent Young Man, Sustains Fatal Injuries.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 6.—This morning about 7 o'clock pedestrians were horrified by seeing a male patient in the High Smith Hospital hanging by one hand from a window on the third floor, yelling, "Save me!" But before assistance could be rendered, he lost his hold and dropped to the sidewalk, fifty feet below. After being carried into the hospital by doctors and nurses, it was found that he had sustained a broken arm and broken leg; also internal injury. He proved to be John L. Sherwood, a prominent young business man of Dillon, S. C. He died at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Sherwood fell at 1 o'clock, just as the night nurses were going off duty and the day force coming on. This gave him his first opportunity to get to a window. Mr. Sherwood was formerly a resident of this city, a clerk for the late James Burnes.

Mr. Sherwood was admitted to the Hospital last Wednesday, and since he has been perfectly rational, with nothing in his condition to require watchfulness. It is thought he had risen and was sitting in the window, and lost his balance. His cries for help would indicate that.

THOUSANDS QUIT WORK IN NEW YORK

Strike of Longshoremen Extends and Other Lines Are Crippled.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The longshoremen's strike, which has been on for a week in Brooklyn and Manhattan, was suddenly extended to-day, when a number of men employed on the docks on the Hudson, both in New York and Hoboken, left their places. It is estimated that about 2,000 went out. The strikers claim that to-morrow several thousand more men will strike, and that within forty-eight hours there will not be a longshoreman at work except for companies which grant the increase in wages demanded. The men ask for forty cents an hour for ordinary work, sixty cents for overtime and eighty cents for Sundays and holidays. At present they receive thirty-five, fifty and sixty cents.

On the other hand, the dock superintendents of the line, particularly the great transatlantic lines, which are affected, say that under no circumstances will they grant the demands of the men. They declare the demands are exorbitant and that plenty of men can be had for the old scale. In the meantime the companies have their fremen, stewards and crews at work loading freight. It is said that none of the big liners will be delayed, although some of them may be forced to return to Europe. The only important delay so far has been in the case of the steamer Kronland, which was scheduled to sail Friday, but did not get away until to-day.

CAPTAIN BILLUPS, PILOT.

Virginia Man Takes Place of Man Who Quit Juniata.

BALTIMORE, May 6.—When the steamer Juniata, of the Merchants and Miners' line, left on Saturday night, two hours later for Boston, she had aboard as pilot Captain G. W. Billups, of Mathews county, Va. Captain Billups is an ex-captain and large stockholder of the company, and has a fortune estimated at $300,000. The mates of the company who have resigned to the refusal of the company to increase their pay claim that the volunteering of Captain Billups to go into the Juniata in such a subordinate position is proof that the company is hard hit to supply a sufficient number of mates for its vessels.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., May 6.—Municipal election day in Raleigh was so quiet that comparatively few people realized that it was election day at all. Johnson, Mayor, with other present officers to be re-elected to a Board of Aldermen, largely new material, together with Police Commissioners Lynn Wilder, chairman; L. A. Mahler and J. A. Briggs, this being a new board created by the last Legislature.

On the march to Perryville, while his command was passing a dangerous point in the Kentucky mountains, he built a signal fire for some purpose on a high rock. The Federal gunners of Carlisle's Division shot out his fire, when he calmly rebuilt it and kept it burning till it had served its purpose.

After his release from prison, when starting homeward on the train, a Federal officer asked Mr. Haynes why he
